We are requesting the following information because of a change made to the parent dislocated worker question on the 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Please answer the following questions:

Is a parent, whose information is on the FAFSA, a dislocated worker? YES NO (circle one)

Except for the spouse of an active duty military member of the Armed Forces, if a person quits work, generally he or she is not considered a dislocated worker even if, for example, the person is receiving unemployment benefits.

In general, a person may be considered a dislocated worker if he or she:

- is receiving unemployment benefits due to being laid off or losing a job and is unlikely to return to a previous occupation;
- has been laid off or received a lay-off notice from a job;
- was self-employed but is now unemployed due to economic conditions or natural disaster; or
- is the spouse of an active duty member of the Armed Forces and has experienced a loss of employment because of relocating due to permanent change in duty station; or
- is the spouse of an active duty member of the Armed Forces and is unemployed or underemployed, and is experiencing difficulty in obtaining or upgrading employment; or
- is a displaced homemaker. A displaced homemaker is generally a person who previously provided unpaid services to the family (e.g., a stay-at-home mom or dad), is no longer supported by the spouse, is unemployed or underemployed, and is having trouble finding or upgrading employment.

When did this change occur? _____

If this change occurred after the date the student and parent signed the FAFSA, please contact our office to schedule an appointment with a Financial Aid Counselor.
